Three American residents of Talcahuano, viz: Davidson L. Ferguson, formers, of Holmes' Hole, Massachusetts; Horace Young, from New Bedford, and Benjamin Boane, shapbuilder, together with four others—two Chileans, a Frenchman and a Fortuguese—were drowned in the Bay of Talcahuano on the Tal inst. They is does no a sailing exoursion, and while returning towards evening, a squall astuck the boat which contained them, capsing it and drowning the entire party. Ferguson and Young leave families in Talcahuano.

anding of the American Wooden Houses and Termination of the Trades Union Riots—Government Quarrel with the French Minister, and Diplomatic Relations Broken Off—Reference to Napoleon—The French Squadron to Concentrate at Callao—Important Despatches for Washington—Change in the United States Legation at Lima—An Echenique Revolution Looked for, &c., &c.

The government has finally succeeded in landing the coden houses, or, rather, the door and window frames, last month. They were landed under a strong military guard, which effectually intimidated the rioters, and thus happily prevented another disturbance.

But the most important item of news which I have to Communicate is the rupture between the French singler, M. Huet, and the government, growing out of the imprison-ment and alleged ill treatment of a French subject, who, it appears, claimed damages, through the Minister, for false imprisonment and cruel treatment. The government recisted the demand for damages, and the French Minister became indignant, hauled down his flag on the 23d instant, and broke off all diplomatic intercourse with the government. Full particulars of the quarrel cannot be had. Suffice it to say that ch Admiral interposed, which resulted in the in controversy being referred to the French Em-hulk belonging to the Pacific Steam Navigation C. pany, laying in this harbor, to be searched, under pretext that arms were concealed on board. The employé in charge of the hulk sought the protection of the French Admiral, who sent a boat alongside the hulk with an officer in com-mand. This officer and the Peruvian officer who was searching the hulk, got into a quarrel, which led to the f ormer's challenging the latter. But the Admiral inter-fered, assuming that as the affront was offered while his officer was on duty, it required his official notice, and he accordingly demanded reparation. Here the matter officer was considered to the constant of the free of the french squadron to concentrate at Callao. The flag ship of the squadron, with her tender, are about sailing for Panama, while the corvette Constantine is to remain Panama,

Captain Reypolds, late master of the Georgiana, leaves to-day in the steamship Valparalso for Panama, en route for Washington, in charge of important despatches to the United States government from Minister Clay. It is understood that these despatches refer to the seizure and confiscation by the government of Peru of the Georgiana and Lizzie Thomson. Mr. Clay has communicated to this government the ultimatum of the United States, and has repeatedly demanded a settlement in conformity therewith, but has not been able to obtain one. In fact, the government of Peru peremptorily refuse to settle at all; and Mr. Clay has therefore asked his government to enforce its demands, as, without the co-operation of a ship of war, he can do nothing more in the premises. It is to be hoped that orders will forthwith be sent to the flag officer in command of the United States Pacific squadron to repair to Callao and demand a settlement from Peru.

Mr. Carendy, Secretary of the United States Legation at

Mr. Cavendy, Secretary of the United States Legation at Lima, leaves with his family next month for the United States. Mr. C. retires from the legation in consequence of ill health. His absence will be deeply regretted by every American resident of Callao and Lima.

The accumulation of large amounts of Belivian coin in Peru—which is almost the only circulating medium we have—has given rise to great complaints among the merchants of this place and Lima, who are about to adopt some steps to get rid of this base coin.

The government of Castilla is becoming more unpopular every day, and the general inference is that we will sooner or later have a revolution.

Echenique is still in Bolivia at the head of a large force, watching a favorable opportunity to pounce down upon Peru.

Peruvian Blockade of Guayaquil, and an Attack Espected—Ottisens Flying Away—Provisions Very Soarce, and Much Suffering of the People.

By the arrival of the English steamer at this port on the 17th instant, I am in receipt of private advices from Guayaquil, Ecuador, to the 3d, at which time the Peruvian biockading squadron, consisting of the ships of war Amazonas, Azechunaca, Aranco, Petonia and the Lizzie Amazonas, Azechunaca, Aranco, Petonis and the Lizzie Thompson—the lutter bearing the name of some Peruvian general—was before that port. From indications that had been made by the squadron an attack was expected the next day upon the town. The citizens of the place were greatly aiarned. Many families had ich town, and others were preparing to leave. There was a great searcily of provisions at Guayaquii. Flour was nelling at $50 per barrel. Two thousand sacks had lately been imported from Caliac, which altorede great relief to the inhabitants. It appears that they were introduced by the way of Extero islado, an entuary which runs up to a point near Guayaquii, and which the Peruvians had overlooked.

All provisions which were sent down the river for the relief of the citizens of Guayaquii are intercepted and destroyed, by order of the Peruvian admiral.

NEWS FROM NEW GRANADA.

PANAMA, Feb. 19, 1859.

No Report from Boyota—Fever Amongst the English at Tu-bega—Refusal of the French Consul at Panama to obey a Court Summons—Popular Excitement on the Subject— Transit Agents for New York—American Capital In-vested on the Isthmus—Vindication of the Rights of Foreigners—German Emigration to Chiriqui.

The last mail from Bogota having failed to reach Carthagena in time for the West India steamer for Aspinwall,

I am consequently without any advices from the capital or interior States, and I can only give you the news from

The sickness at Taboga among the employes of the Eng-lish Steamship Company, which had somewhat abated when the last steamer sailed for New York, has increased of late with renewed violence. Mr. Alexander Ross, Purser of the steamship Valparaiso, was attacked there with the yellow fever on the 13th inst., and died on the 17th; and Capt. Bloomfield, the popular commander of this steamer, the Purser's clerk and three of the crew, are now down with the fever.

One of the most notable events of the fortnight is the dispute which has just arisen between the French Consul at this place and the authorities of the State, respecting the immunities claimed by the former. The Supreme Court of the State having subponsed the Coust to appear before them and give testimony in a cause in which he had previously acted in his official character, he refused had previously acted in his official character, he refused point blank to appear and testify. The Court, after consultation, referred the matter to the Governor of the State, who still has it under advisement.

The French Consul, i understand, is fully determined to resist the order of the Court, and, if matters come to the worst, and he is forced to appear, to claim the protection off the French Admiral, who is daily expected in port. He is willing, he says, to give his testimony in writing over his official seal, but protests against appearing in open court.

of the French Admiral, who is daily expected in port. He is willing, he says, to give his testimony in writing over his official seal, but protests against appearing in open court.

This affair has very naturally occasioned a good deal of excitement here among the native population, who insist apon it that the Consul should be required, by force, if necessary, to appear in person in court. I venture the conjecture that the Consul will carry his point, and that the Court will recode from its demand—particularly should the French frigate make its appearance in our harbor before the termination of the matter—although it is perfectly clear that the court is right. There is no plainer principle of public law than that Consuls are not entitled to the same immunities conceded to diplomatic agents. The only preregatives they can claim is exemption from all public service, from contributions, personal and extanordinary, and, in matters that pertain exclusively to the exercise of their officicial functions, they are independent of the State where they reside. But where their presence is required in the courts of the country, if summoned in writing, they have no right to refuse to appear, anless the contrary is affirmed by treaty. France, I believe, has no consular convention with New Granada, and hence the French Consul can claim no greater privileges than are conceded to Consuls of other nations who have streaties with this country.

Captain Sponcer, who has been in Nicaragua for some time past, looking after the interests of the Van Dyko Company, goes to New York in the Illinois. As President Martinez has no condidence in the ability of that company to fulfil its engagements, it is fair to infer that Sponcer has accomplised nothing for those who sent him to Nicaragua. A brother of Yrimari, who arrived hore in the Cotumbus from Guatemala, also proceeds to the United States in the Illinois.

From the annual report on foreign commerce, recently published by the State Department at Washington, I compite the following stati

The Pranama Reilroad Company distourses annually for la-bor, &c., at Panama, Aspinwall, and along the line of the road, $60,000. The Pacific Mail Steamahip Company's expenses, for labor, &c., at this port, are put down at $240,000 per annum, and the United States Mail Steamahip Company as $20,000 per an-num, making a total of $900,000, in American capital, paid out annually on the islamus of Panama for jakor, &c., by these

The report goes on to state that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company has imported, during the year, for its consumption, at the port of Panama, 11,593 tons of coalt value, 523 559.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company also imports, annually, about $75,000 to stores and provisiors.

There is much gratification here among the foreign residents at the dismissal of Cassanovas, the Captain of Police, whose brutal treatment of foreign sailors, while under arrest for drunkenness, has been reprehensible in the hisbest degree.

arrest for drunkenness, has been reprehensible in the highest degree. His dismissal was effected through the French Consul, in consequence of his inhuman treatment of some Freuch seamen who were arrested when intoxicated a few days ago. It is said that the French Consul, when he requested the dismissal of Cassanova, took occasion to tell the superior authorities of the State that since the massacre of American citizens on the 15th of April, 1855, the abuse and ill treatment of foreigners in this country was quite a common occurrence.

Quite a number of German families have of late settled in the district of Chiriqui, in this State, which is celebrated for its agricultural advantages. About ten families in all of this industrious class of people have taken up their abode there. They are, I learn, from Texas. Some fifty families more are expected out scom. A missionary of the Protestant faith has just arrived from Texas, en route for Chiriqui.

Protestant faith has just arrived from Texas, en route for Chiriqui.

It is rumored in town that an order is expected from the federal government at Bogota, by next mail, directing that the Governor of this State, the District Attorney, the State Attorney and Criminal Judge be held to a strict accountability, for having failed to bring to trail ex Governor Francisco de Pabrega, as ordered by the President of the confederation some time since, for his alleged completity in the riot or massacre at that place in April, 1856. It will be recollected that he gave the order to the chief of police to fire upon the realroad station house, by which some diffeen defenceless American citizens were killed outright. This fact has never been denied, not even by Fabrega himself, and an order for his arrest and trial from the government at Bogota has been in the hands of the authorities of this State for a long time, which has never been executed; and these delinquent officials are about to be held accountable, it is said, for the non enforcement of the order.

MILITARY EXPEDITION AGAINST THE INDIANS.

Gen. Clarke, commanding the California department of the Pacific division, has gone to work energetically to pun-ish the Mojave and Pah Utah Indians, who lately attacked Col. Hoffman's command at Beale's Crossing.

The fine steamship Upcle Sam has been chartered by the Quartermaster's department to convey a large body of troops from this city to the mouth of the Colorado. She will sail on Monday, the 7th inst. All the stores and munitions of war requisite for the campaign are to be conveyed down on the Uncle Sam, and the soldiers will be will leave on Monday. The steamer will touch at San before proceeding to the mouth of the Colorado, where the five companies will be landed. They will march from there to the scene of the late attack. This force will be joined at Fort Yuma by companies K and E of the Sixth Infantry, who have received orders to march from San Bernardton, and a deschapant of the First farmons from Infantry, who have received orders to march from San Bernardino, and a detachment of the First dragoons from Fort Tejon, numbering one hundred and fifty. The two companies of artillery new at Fort Yuma will form part of the expedition. The whole body, mfantry and cavalry, consists of 700 men, with two mountain howitzers. Major Hoffman commands the expedition.

Colonel Swords, Deputy Quartermaster General, has furnished to the Herald the following statement of the expenses incurred by his department for the late Indian war in Oregon, during the months of June, July, August, Septembor, October, November and December, 1858:—Purchaise of forage.

Boots and shoes continue dull and without improvement. Ship bread is lower. The leavy stock to candles is controlled by speculators, who as yet find fittle outlet for their purchases. Anthracite coal has slightly improved; desirable qualities of English are held with more firmness. Cordage is very dull, with bet hitle demand. Corn meal unchanged. Bry goods are quite inactive, and prices for staples have declined. In fruits, sauces, &c., ready sale is found for arriving parcels of preserves and pic fruits. Rakins, apples and other dried fruits remain as last reported, nuts of all kinds are dull and supplies ample; sauces and canffruits have come in largely and are not readily placed. In French goods, sardines are especially expected, the provides of the market shows no improvement. A good demand exists for lumber for export to foreign countries, all previous rates. Mis h liquors show no improvement—market very dull and to wealing. Molasses and syntym are steady. Metals continue dull without change in price. Nails quiet, but show more firmness latterly. Navai stores inactive and scarcely asked for. In oils we have no change to note beyond somewhat more demand for linseed and a forther decline in Chiua nut. Provisions declined just at the time of the sailing of the last steamer, but have more recently improved to an advance upon the quotations then current for some descriptions; beef finds no sale; bacon is more active at better prices; hams in brile find readier sale; the stock of patent covers light, but not much sought for; pork is held finnly, and commands somewhat better rates; choice butter is lower, but now market rown terms; Carolina is slow of sale, without change, homestic spirits have advanced materially under a specu

COURT OF CLAIMS.—MONDAY, Feb. 21.—Wm. W. Mann, Esq., of Bufalo, New York, was sworn an attorney of the Court.

R. R. Ward and others, assignees of Jacob Barker, vs. the United States.—The assigner of the claimants took a part of the loan of $25,000,000 in the year 1814, with a contract on the part of the Searctary of the Treasury that, if any portion of said loan was afterwards made upon more favorable terms to the lender, he should have additional stock to the amount of the difference between the terms upon which he took the stock and those allowed to others. It was claimed by the petitioners that the stock was granted to subsequent subscribers upon more favorable terms than it was taken by Barker; and this suit was brought to recover that difference, amounting to about $356,000, with interest at six per cent from 1815. Each of the Judges delivered an opinion adverse to the claim, but coming to that conclusion upon somewhat different reasoning.

TUSDAY, Feb. 22.—Wm. Geiger vs. the United States.—Mr. McCherson, Deputy Solicitor, agued this case in behalf of the government. General McCalia concluded in behalf of the claimant, and the case was submitted.

James Buchanan Henry, Enq., of New York city, was appointed a Commissioner of this Court.

iarge majority of the subscribers to the French aire, who number nearly two hundred persons, were stendance at the meeting held at the theatre and the content of the conte in attendance at the meeting held at the theatre. Thursday, and the context for choice places was quite spiri. According to the arrangement of the directors, MM. Widdows and Sage, each subscriber is entitled to two places for each representation. To decide as to the choice, the names of the subscribers were placed in a hat and drawn by a committee appointed for the purpose. A good number of the boxes, parquotte seats and orchestra stalls, were thus disposed of. The diagram of the house gives on the ground plan severty orchestra stalls, either parameters. ground plan seventy orchestra stalls, eighty parquette seats, six bowes arout some, and ten balcony boxes, with a large number of seats in the balcony. In the dress circle there are thirty five open boxes and eleven closed, making sixty one private boxes in all, with seats for from two to six persons in each. All the places in the dress circle are num-bered, and the house, which is a petit bijou of a theatre, will seat comfortably about a thousand persons. The princi-pal artists, whose names we have already published, are now in the city, and tive opening of the theatre will eventuate on or before the 18th of March.

While new theatres are going up old ones are coming down. Thus, we hear that the final destruction of the Broadway theatre has been resolved upon, and the present owner, Mr. James R. Whiting, will commence the erection of a block of stores on its of Houston street and Broadway. Nothing is so suggestive of the upward movement of our city as the change in the location of our fashionable theatres. The first theatre in New York was in John street. Then came the Park, which held its place nearly fifty years. In its temporary decadence, Mr. Wallesk opened the National at the corner of Church and Leonard streets, which had its run. Subsequently Burton made a fortune in Chambers street. The Broadway theatre was initiated by Mr. Hamblia, but passed into other hands, and has had a singularly chequered existence for ten years. When it goes down there will be abend of theatre building south of Houston street. There is a rumor that Niblo's theatre will come down after the first of May, but the story lacks authentication.

A private operatic performance of "Lucia di Lammer noor" was given at Bodworth's rooms on Friday. It is moor was given at play amusing.

The stockholders of the Brooklyn Academy of Music held another meeting on Saturday last. Their stock is nearly all taken, and they will commence to build early in the spring. The project of a new theatre in Brooklyn is talked of and finds favor with some of the cleverest of our managers.

Stoepel's Hiawatha, which made such a fine success of he Academy on Monday last, will shortly be repeated. The Shaksperian play, "Antony and Cleopatra," will be brought out in grand style at the Broadway in a few days. Mr. Harry Pearson, who has been re-engaged here, has a part in it.

At the Broadway theatre the Star Sisters, the Misse Western, will remain three nights longer. They play this evening in "The Flowers of the Forest," "Swiss Swains' and "The Phenomenon."

At Niblo's Garden "Cinderella" is to be brought ou this evening by the juvenile comedians attached to Nixon's circus. Other popular entertainments will be added, all of which are duly expressed in the announcements.

At Wallack's theatre "The Veteran" will be played, with Mr. Wallack and all the splendid tableaux, marches, &c. &c.

with Mr. Wallack and all the spiendid tableaux, marches, &c., &c.

At Laura Keene's theatre the programme includes "Our American Cousin" and the Washington tableaux, which are very popular and very patriotic.

At Barnum's Museum the spring theatrical season will be commenced this evening. The company includes several actors of repute. Among the announcements for this evening is the drama called "Louise" and the farce, "An Alarming Sacridea."

At the Bowery theatre the evening's entertainment includes the drama called "The Writing on the Wall," the pantomine, "Raoul," and the drama, "Esmeralda," a capital bil.

Among the colored opera novelties is "Our African Cousin" at Wood's. The Bryants also announce several new things.

The besiness of the theatres during the past week was very good, and the spring season promises to be very fine. We notice among the list of passengers by the Illinois, which arrived yesterday from California, that of Master M. Lewis, the Ethiopian dancer, formerly of Wood's Min strels, of this city.

A religious cotemporary in this city has a prominent contri-butor who has evidently caught the spirit of the LADGER contributor "who keeps his eyes and ears open," if, indeed, he does not actually seek to imitate him. At least, so our thoughts—as they occur—lead us to believe; but striking simi-larities are often exhibited by productions remote in their origin.
